Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis is Book 2 in the How to Kill a Superhero book series. This revolutionary epic delivers a story full of heart and a story full of suspense for fans of gay men's erotica and fans of psychologically complex superheroes. The StorySome might say the man known as Roland has superpowers. He prefers to think of himself as an anomaly of human evolution. Roland has exiled himself from the United States after his escape from an FBI manhunt. He travels east along the globe on a mission to find David Dallion, a reclusive biologist who can help Roland reverse his superpowers, which are tied to the occult book The Golden Man. As Roland faces the savage danger of the Australian outback, he discovers that he is still vulnerable to his sadomasochistic urges: He has a superhero fetish that he cannot control. Rolands journey will pit him against an ancient and mysterious evil that stains the sky in blood and threatens to murder humanity to unleash the Gold Apocalypse.
