Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur When crime comes calling, it can only be solved by the extraordinary Siamese cat brains of Koko and Yum Yum - with a little help from mentor Jim Qwilleran... The Cat Who Saw Red is a delightful crime novel, featuring two very clever cats, from acclaimed writer Lilian Jackson Braun. Perfect for cosy crime fans and cat lovers. 'It's a Wonderful Life meets The Aristocats in this daft but endearing whodunit' - Liverpool Daily Post

When Jim Qwilleran is sent to 'Maus Haus' on a gastronomical quest, he takes Koko and Yum Yum along for company and steps into a house of curiosities. There's restaurateur Robert Maus, elbow-deep in saucepans; cuddly Hixie with her daily calorie count; and Joy Graham, the red-headed flame from Qwilleran's past and a talented potter to boot. Then strange things occur as a startling scream pierces the night air and Joy disappears without trace. Koko, Yum Yum and their all-providing mentor, Qwilleran, are determined to solve the mystery...

What readers are saying about The Cat Who Saw Red: 'The vivid cast of kooky characters are one of the best features of Lillian Jackson Braun's books' 'The entire 'Cat Who...' series are a delight for cat and mystery lovers' 'Well written fiction that keeps you enthralled from beginning to end' 'Revue de presse Praise for the Cat Who... series: 'The fastidious plotting is designed to appeal to more than just the cat-lover' The Times; 'This droll and engaging mystery... firmly grips the reader... a lively witty tale bolstered by sharply etched characters' Publishers Weekly; 'Won't just appeal to the cat-lover' Belfast Telegraph; 'It's a Wonderful Life meets The Aristocats in this daft but endearing whodunit' Liverpool Daily Post; 'Mrs Braun has a breezy style; the cats are really smart' New York Times Book ; 'Great fun!' Lawrence Block
